WAR LOOMING.

ANGRY DISCUSSION BETWEEN U. S. MINISTER SICKLES AND SPANISH MINISTRY—SPAIN STUBBORN AND DEFIANT.

MOB VIOLENCE OFFERED TO THE AMERICAN LEGATION IN SPAIN.

NEW YORK, November 21.—A Herald special dated Madrid, 20th instant, says the situation is grave. There is a serious misunderstanding between Sickles and the Spanish Cabinet.

On the arrival of the news of the capture of the Virginius, President Castelar called at the United States Legation, expressed his regret and ordered a suspension of sentence.

When Secretary Fish telegraphed the news of the executions, Gen. Sickles sent a note at two o'clock in the morning, demanding a stay. The Foreign Secretary answered, questioning the accuracy of the information, and intimated that Gen. Sickles' action was not authorized. Thereupon Sickles, in the name of the United States, addressed a formal protest against the inhuman butchery, and the insult to the the United States again demanded that Spain should enforce obedience to the orders in Cuba, and insisted on the rights of the Americans to trial under the treaty of 1796. He complained that the American Consul at Santiago was prevented from using the telegraph to Washington.

The Spanish Secretary answered, that the matter was wholly a municipal affair between Spain and the Virginius pirates. Spain could not tolerate American interference.

The interview ended by General Sickles demanding that Spain should enforce the order of the Cabinet to Cuba for the suspension of executions.

The interview terminated angrily, Sickles saying he would hold no more personal, only official relations with the minister.

Public feeling runs high. The Spaniards blame the United States for Cuban insurrection, and say they will welcome war. Minister Sickles does not see how war can be avoided, as Spain will concede nothing, and public opinion will prevent President Castellar from making any concessions. There is no use in the United States trifling any more on the subject, the Spanish stubborness making concessions impossible. The extreme Republicans favor the views of the United States in the affair.

THE LAST CUBAN SEIZURES.

NEW YORK, November 21.—Officers of the City of New York give the names of passengers by the Spaniards. Mrs. Amitala de Monti, a widow, and her child. Richards Lancis and entire family, consisting of three children, and Dona Catalina Parez. Nothing suspicious was found in the clothing of the women or children. All were discharged except Lancis. Two hundred persons have been captured implicated by correspondence. No executions when the York left.

THE OFFICIAL NEWS AT WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, November 21.—The dispatches received by the Secretary of State are confirmations in part of the special telegrams from Madrid in regard to the demonstrations against Minister Sickles, though the Secretary is of the opinion that the specials are somewhat exaggerated. The mob which collected in front of the American Legation was promptly dispersed by the Government, and there is no doubt here in official circles but that the authorities at Madrid are capable of preventing any outbreak.

The position of Minister Sickles is very uncomfortable, but it is not believed that any violence will be suffered. Mr. Sickles telegraphs that the Spanish officials are equal to the emergency.

Minister Sickles is hourly in communication with the State Department and his dispatches indicate the existence of a very strong feeling against the United States.

Mr. Fish submitted a number of telegrams from Minister Sickles to the Cabinet to-day and the session which has just commenced will, in all probability, be one of the most interesting and serious meetings since the commencement of the present complications.

Members of the Cabinet this morning seem to be very serious in their demeanor, and there appears to be a more extended discussion in all places as to the probabilities of war than has yet been noticed. At the same time, so far as has been made known, the official advices from Spain have not varied in the assertions of the honesty of the Castelar government to preserve friendly relations, and to command calmness and dignity during the progress of negotiations.

The excitement of the populace in Madrid does not seem to be spared by the government there, as is evidenced by the expressed opinion of the Secretary of State here, that there is an exaggeration in the unofficial reports and the associations of Mr. Sickles that the Spanish government is able and has suppressed hostile indications against the American legation at Madrid.

The Secretary of the Navy returned to this city this morning, and was at the Department, at a very early hour. A large number of naval officers have been ordered to duty to day, to the ships of heavy ordinance now being fitted out for immediate active service. Naval recruiting offices has been ordered to be opened at New Orleans.

FOR THE DOCTORS.

A DOCTOR JURY CONDEMNS CHLOROFORM TO STOP PAIN.

BOSTON, November 21.—The jury of doctors in the case of Mrs. Mary F. Crie, who died from the effects of chloroform, administered by Dr. Eastman, of this city, returned a verdict last night that they do not censure him.

The jury cautions the public against the inhalation of so dangerous an agent as chloroform for the production of insensibility to pain, and are of the opinion that the inhalation of sulphuric ether is safe, while the inhalation of chloroform alone or mixed is always attended with danger.

DAY SPARKLES.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 21.—A slight earthquake was felt here to-day.

CHICAGO, November 21.—The first prize of the tournament between Ubassier and Garnier, who play off to-night.

CHATTANOOGA, November 21.—The Democrats carried the municipal election to-day, for the first time since the war.

Peter Burgett, a wealthy planter residing on Cat Island, while riding with Major Gadshaw, was instantly killed, and Gadshaw wounded.

Wages on the Memphis and Charleston Railroad has been reduced 20 per cent. A strike is probable.

NORFOLK, November 21.—An unknown schooner, supposed, from the appearance of her spars, to be a new vessel, was sunk during the night's gale, ten miles south of Cape Henry. The name of the sail maker is [illegible] Hartell, Philadelphia, Mass. It [illegible] one of the crew was washed

GREAT SALE OF

JOHN H. JAMES, Banker

REAL ESTATE.

On Tuesday, November 25, 1873.

—IN—

ATLANTA, GEORGIA,

VALUED AT FROM

$85,000 TO $100,000.

DESCRIPTION OF JOHN H. JAMES' PROPERTY

I WILL sell at auction in this city, commencing at ten o'clock on Tuesday morning, the 25th of November next, the following described magnificent, central, rent-paying Real Estate:

1. That splendid five story (besides basement,) BRICK STORE, on the corner of Whitehall and Hunter streets, Dry Goods Emporium, occupied by Louis deSaulles & Co. This building cost $32,000, and rents for $3,100, all new, and a first-class building.

2. One two story (besides basement,) BRICK STORE, on Whitehall street, next door to James' Bank corner, occupied by Mrs Agnes Turner, and rents for $1,580.

3. One VACANT LOT, on Alabama street, 30½ by 62 feet, alley on east side.

4. BRICK OFFICES, adjoining above lot, on Alabama street, occupied by Samuel Hoyle, rents for $920.

5. One BRICK STORE, occupied by John Domini, next to the last named offices, and rents for $759.

6. VACANT GROUND, fronting on Peachtree street, adjoining the new brick stores now being built by Busby, Boyd & Robinson. Also the brick cottage in rear of said ground, formerly occupied by Mr. James, fronting on Ellis street, rents for $580. This is divided so as to make 5 store lots and 2 residence lots. Nos. 1 and 2 will be sold for store lots. Nos. 3, 4 and 5 will be sold for stores, or in connection with No. 6, by closing the alley they will make one of the best residence lots in the city.

7. One VACANT LOT, on Church and Forsyth streets, tri-angular shaped, next to Messrs. Boyd and Brother—No. 1.

8. A four room COTTAGE and LOT, on Cain street, occupied by James Patterson, rents for $200 per year.

9. About TWO ACRES of ground around the celebrated Walton Spring, divided as per plat into 15 lots, some of them beautiful for residences.

The recent money panic has given Mr. James some inconvenience, and he desires to sell his property and increase his banking capital. Moneyed men, now is your time to get some of the best property in this city at low prices, as Mr. James is determined to sell. His loss by this sale will be the buyer's gain.

His private residence on Peachtree street, that cost $60,000, and his Bank Block, on Whitehall street and the Railroad, that cost $75,000 last year, and rents for $10,000 per annum, will not be sold. He thinks the above and some other property will sell for enough to answer his purposes.

☞ Plats of vacant property will be posted.

☞ Capitalists from a distance and at home are invited to examine all this gilt edge, rent-paying, central property.

TERMS.—One-third Cash, balance in four and ten months, with ten per cent. interest—unquestionable titles.

Loan certificates and deposits in Mr. James' Bank received in payment. Good Railroad, City or State Bonds and Stocks received as Cash at their market value, which will be agreed upon before the sale commences on inquiry of Mr. James at his banking office. Parties who cannot make payments as above, may make special arrangements with Mr. James before the sale, provided they purchase.

This is certainly the finest opportunity for capitalists to make safe investments, that has been presented for years. I will show the property or give any information about it, at any time, to those who may call at my office.

TO THE FRIENDS AND PATRONS OF THE CONSTITUTION.

Through the darkest hours of Georgia's history THE CONSTITUTION stood fearlessly by you and your rights, against prescription, persecution, and even heavy libel suits by irate Radical Governors. In spite of such opposition THE CONSTITUTION has grown to a prosperity unsurpassed in the South. We now propose to show our appreciation of the people's support by a grand distribution of presents. Mark you, it is no lottery; you do not give one cent more than your subscription, and you do only what subscribers should always do—pay in advance. The percentage of loss thus saved by us, and in expense of collecting, enables us to return it to subscribers in presents, and realize profit beside. Now we appeal to your gratitude and generosity, and if you hear that appeal, as you will, we shall erect a building capable of accommodating our increased business, and which shall stand as a memorial monument to the noble liberality of the subscribers of THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION—their Christmas present. Who cannot pay the small sum of one year's subscription in advance? Surely every subscriber will do so; and some will receive the grand presents of $7,500.

The author of "John Halifax, Gentleman," who has not for some time appeared before the public as a novelist, has just completed a new domestic love story, entitled "My Mother and I," which will appear immediately in Good Words.

The famous estate of "Lindenwold," New York, the residence of President Van Buren, containing 225 acres, with furniture, horses, carriages and personal property, was sold the other day for $32,000. It was a notable place in its day, and the scene of many a political plot.

Senator Sherman, Chairman of the Finance Committee, express the opinion that all schemes of inflation coming up from the House will be stopped in the Senate. The prominent champions of inflation are Butler, Kelley and Parson Brownlow. Most of the old and prominent members of the House of Representatives discountenance inflation.

Attorney General Denny reports that the "Vigilants" of Indiana extend over four counties and number about 2,000 members. Their business is to hang men who don't behave themselves. They profess to do the work that the courts are too corrupt to do. Governor Hendricks has threatened them, and they have promised to disband.

The new Vienna waterworks were opened on the 24th ultimo in the presence of the Emperor, the Archdukes and various high officials. The water comes from the Alps, a distance of fifty-four miles, by means of tunnels and aqueducts. The cost of the works has been about $10,000,000, and they have been finished in three years and a half.

Count Von Moltke spent his seventy-fourth birthday in Berlin, where he arrived in perfect health and vigor. He has issued a touching order to the general staff, announcing the death, from cholera, of their comrade, Colonel Von Sydow, the well known head of the geographical section, whose name has long stood high in the scientific world.

Jails are bad enough without having ghosts in them. The jail in Joliet is haunted by a spectre that is most unpleasantly seen and felt. It appears with its throat cut from ear to ear, and smites the wretched prisoners with its clammy hands. It is hoped that this new terror will have an excellent effect upon the morals of Joliet.

A cable dispatch announces the death, in England, of Mr. George Jordan, an actor of some repute. Mr. Jordan was a native of Baltimore and a printer by trade. He was a popular member of the stock company of the Richmond Theatre about sixteen years ago. He was the original Pygmalion in Mr. Gilbert's play of that name.

Secretary Richardson says the public debt will be largely increased this month in consequence of the falling off in customs receipts, and the payment of the quarterly pension accounts, which will require four and one-half millions. The premium on gold having advanced, the Treasury Department has discontinued the payment of silver in sums of five dollars.

The vexed question of woman's preaching is discussed in the St. Louis Advocate, and particular attention drawn to the popular Mrs. Van Cott, whom it characterizes as vain and egotistical, pompous, dogmatic and bold, besides being given to slang phrases, and says: "Mrs. Van Cott was the first regularly licensed preacher in the Methodist Episcopal Church, and we respectfully suggest that, unless the material be of a different kind, and greatly superior she should be the last."

In the Berks county, Penn., poor-house, they have adopted a system which works extremely well. Every tramp who receives a night's lodging is obliged to pay for it by working two hours in the morning. This is just what a respectable and right-minded tramp would be willing and even glad to do, but that sort of vagabond isn't too common in his lazy world, and we are not surprised to learn that the wanderers do not often trouble the Berks county refuge a second time.

M. Thiers sleeps every day from 5 to 7 o'clock, rarely dines before 8, and hence tea is only served about 10. Between 11 and 12 the little man is in his glory, standing before the chimney, with both hands under his coat tails, and laying down the law upon every conceivable subject in a way which would have been very creditable to Moses. In point of fact, Moses was an ignoramus compared with M. Thiers, and the only wonder is, as Goldsmith expressed it, "How one small head could hold all he knew."

All puns are abominable and indefensible. And some of them are very good. A Liverpool pilot was brought over on a White Star steamer, much against his will, the weather being so heavy that he could not be landed. A gentleman being asked what the pilot must have said when he saw Boston, replied: "He probably exclaimed: 'That Mersey I to others show, that Mersey show to me.'" We are sorry to say that we do not believe one word of this story. We know a manufactured pun when we see one, and this has all the air of being artificial.

Sunday's Constitution.

The demand for last Sunday's CONSTITUTION at the hotels and on the streets exceeded the supply. To-morrow's paper will be exceedingly interesting, containing all the latest news of the Spanish-Cuban embroglio, continuation of the novelet[illegible] ety of interesting

The War Cloud.

Great numbers of yesterday afternoon's CONSTITUTION were sold yesterday on account of the exciting telegraphic news from Spain. If the news continues exciting, it will be published this afternoon.

☞ The Shreveport Times of the 11th instant announces that the Texas and Pacific Railroad Company has relieved Tom Scott's Credit Mobilier Construction Company from further labor in building the road, and has assumed the work itself.

☞ That indigenous and talented African Fred Douglass, is lecturing to delighted audiences in Washington City on the glories of old John Brown, of Harpers Ferry memory, whose hanged soul is marching on, etc. Frederick admires Brown much.

☞ The New York Tribune of the 17th inst. publishes very full reports from Rhode Island, touching the business affairs of that State. The statement of the financial condition of Hoyt, Sprague & Co. shows a balance of $3,321,252 in assets over total liabilities. The state of trade in the southern portion of the State is reported as being in a less flourishing condition than that in northern Rhode Island. There are, however, but few complete stoppages among the mills, and the general impression is that the worst is over.

Some Leading Opinions on the Virginius Butchery.

President Grant says that outrages on American citizens in Cuba have been tolerated long enough, and the time has come to stop them.

Secretary Fish declares the seizure to be illegal because made on the high seas.

Ex-President Andrew Johnson believes that Cuba should have been annexed to the United States long ago. He believes in weighing the present situation carefully.

Mr. Beck, of Kentucky, does not think that war is indicated at present. He thinks Grant's administration is fillibustering.

Wm. M. Evarts demands that civilized nations must cry out against the policy of Spain.

Sunset Cox declares that the recent butcheries at Santiago are the fit; because horrible sequence to previous atrocities of the Spaniards, and the intervention of the civilized world is demanded to stop their further commission.

Governor Parker, of New Jersey, say that the outrage calls for prompt and decided action on the part of our government. He believes that Cuba's destiny is to become a republic under her own people or as part of the United States.

Vice-President Wilson characterizes the affair as a butchery, and the course of Spain to Cuba for years is marked by atrocity.

Governor Ingersoll, of Connecticut, warmly sympathizes with the liberation of Cuba and clamors for the dastardly massacre of Santiago to be dealt with as an offense against the civilized world. He further urges that if international law does not furnish a precedent, our government should furnish one for international law.

Governor Dix, of New York, participates in the general indignation against Spain, and doubts not that our government will vindicate outraged humanity.

Governor Hendricks, of Indiana, sympathizes with the Cubans, and says his State people are with the Cubans in feeling.

These are but samples of an almost unbroken sentiment of indignation expressed from all sources against Spain and in favor of Cuba.

Cuba

The news about the Cuban embroglio is getting to be very warlike. The intelligence on our first page in the noon dispatches is rather startling in its character. The quarrel of Sickles with the Spanish ministry, the resolute rebuff administered to Sickles, and the demonstration of mob violence against the American legation are all serious matters, and portend war.

The unconcealed hostile purpose of the Grant administration constitutes another warlike feature of the situation, backed as that purpose is by popular sentiment, animated as it is by party necessity to do something to bolster up the tottering Radical cause, and embodied in active preparation of the navy for war measures.

One remarkable and significant feature of the matter is the prompt ebullition of resentment in the South. The Southern press is with singular unanimity speaking out against the outrage. This may indicate alike a chivalric sentiment of humanity and ready devotion to the honor of the country, that the ruling party will do well to consider.

The whole affair is a somewhat complicated one. Cuba and Spain are both struggling Republics, and in that have the sympathy of this country. Aid to Cuba is injury to Spain, and Spain is a friendly Republic. Yet Cuba stands in the same position to Spain that our Colonies did to England during the revolution, and we who once fought for freedom from English despotism owe something to Cuban attempt at the same sort of national deliverance.

But again, Cuba holds the same position the South did in the late struggle, and the United States, as a notion in helping Cuba, condemns herself for coercing the South to remain in an unwilling Union, as Spain is doing with Cuba. Altogether it is a very muddled kettle of fish.

Looking at the matter, outside of its atrocious inhumanity, there is no doubt that the Virginius was owned by Cubans, and that it engaged in a mission hostile to Spain and friendly to Cuba. And if such is clearly proven her having American papers and sailing under American flag would not save her from confiscation as a lawful prize by the Spaniards. In this case, however, the first violation of law by the Spaniards was in not obeying the treaty between the United States and Spain, which requires that the vessel should be condemned by a proper prize court.

The next violation of law was in the execution of American citizens captured on the ship as pirates. Whatever might be the propriety of confiscating the ship, the summary shooting of the passengers, even though they were guilty of violating neutrality, was utterly illegal.

We do not now discuss the great question of brutal inhumanity involved in the matter. The legal points should be carefully considered by the government, and no step taken that is not in strict accordance with international law.

A war would be no benefit to the South. An interruption of peace would act injuriously on Southern prosperity and recuperation. Under this state of facts it is necessary to keep cool, act wisely, and make no precipitous mistake.

☞ Congressman H. Boardman Smith, of the Elmira (New York) District, has offered his $4,644.80 of back pay to the President of the Orphans' Asylum in that city, and declares that, whether it is accepted or not, he shall not return it to the United States Treasury, since, in his opinion, it is not stolen money. Sweeny, Harper & Co., when the police dropped in upon the proprietors for running a lottery, gambling, etc. The dollar store is now among the things that were.——Cartersville has some blood thirsty chickens, who devour each other whenever in want of fresh meat. Moore has been threatening to disclose some damaging facts about Honest John in relation to bribery in the Senatorial election, and other matters. Patterson is understood to be instigator of the arrest.

The Saxon God.

The Roman god was force, the Greek god was beauty, the Arabian god was sensuality, the Mohammedan god exquisite perfumes, the beauty of women, exquisite wines. The Saxon idea of a god before Christianity had come to the race, was not an out-door scene; it was no beauty like the Greek; his heaven was a hall, beneath whose roof were gathered the victorious warriors, their battle-axes dripping blood, and they were quaffing the means of intoxication out of the skulls of their enemies. It represented two ideas—force and stimulus to victory, and then enhancing the delight of the hour of victory by intoxication. And if you will watch this Saxon race of ours as it marches down the centuries for a thousand years you will find two great passions, see it in England and see it here, first, to trample under feet every neighboring race to clear the ground around us, allow no rival, no competitor The genuine John Bull can neither bear a Scotchman nor an Irishman unless they are under his feet; the genuine Yankee must absorb Mexico, invade Cuba, and take all the outlying islands. And it must intensify this glory of conquest by adding its intoxicants, and so you find we are the two drunkenest nations on the face of the earth.—Wendell Phillips.

PATTI'S LATETT RIVAL.

Belocca, the Velvet-Voiced—The Prima Donna who is to Rank Them All.

If the Paris and London journals are to be trusted, M. Maurice Strakosh has just discovered, and has revealed at the Paris Italiens, another Patti. Under date of October 11, the correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says: "To-night there was a singular array of beauty to welcome a debutante whose name is destined to be soon in every body's mouth. I ventured, some ten days ago, to prophecy from a single hearing in a small salon, that she would prove an immense success, and the event more than justified my vaticination. Not since the eventful night, twelve years ago, when Adelina Patti electrified the idle, careless, scattered habitues who lounged into Convent Garden just to see 'a new girl from America, come out,' have I been present at any such thoroughly hopeful debut. Mlle. Belocca's success to-night has been, in one respect, even more remarkable; for, whereas, Adelina Patti had been accustomed to sing in public from the time she could first toddle, the debutante of to-night has only been a very few months engaged in serious duty, and has never before appeared on any stage. She is Russian by birth, her name being slightly modified to suit the pronunciation of Western lips. She has a genuine contralto voice, extending far into the soprano register, so that all mezzo-soprano will be easy within her compass. The voice is of peculiarly rich, full, sweet, and if I may venture on the expression, velvety texture. Its flexibility will be acknowedged if I add that she sang all the florid music of Il Barbiere as though to the manner trained. No severer test-part can be imagined than that of Rosini—a character that Adelina Patti may be said to have made her own—and purists will esteem it a recommendation that Mlle. Belocca need make no changes, but can sing the music as it was written. The very first phrases of Una voce poco fa' evoked sympathetic murmurs of approval, and from this point until the curtain fell the applause went on increasing. The passages of the cabaletta were articulated with unerring precision, and in the duet with Figaro, the young lady exhibited a great deal of charming espieglerie, as well as remarkable musical aptitude. She has much to learn in the art of stage demeanor, but she is naturally graceful, bright and animated. In fact, Mlle. Belocca is a born actress, as well as a born singer. In the lesson scene she chose of her own national songs, "The Nightingale,' and, being encored, sang the brindisi from Lucretia Borgia with so much spirit and fire, as well as with such volume and voice, as to be obliged to repeat the second verse. Remarkable as her success was, it was not to be wondered at, for the young lady possesses to an unusual degree that occult, inexplicable quality of sympathy, without which the finest voice, the most consummate intelligence, and the greatest beauty go for nothing. I have neglected to mention Mlle. Belocca is a small brunette, with regular features, and full, expressive eyes. In personal appearance she is not unlike the great artiste of whose debut I have been reminded. Let it not be imagined, however, that I mean to compare the debutante of to-night to Adelina Patti, the most gifted lyric actress of our time. It remains to be seen, indeed, if Mlle. Belocca has any of the sacred fire which burns in la diva's thrilling tones and shines out of her lustrous eyes. Nor can any new comer's powers be fairly tested in a single part. But I am much mistaken if she has not every quality of a fine artiste. It will be her own fault if she does not succeed. The reason that I insist upon to-night's success is that, vastly as the debutante charmed the audience, I thought I saw in her performance much more of promise than of actual accomplishment. And this I take to be the best characteristic of a first appearance."

The names of Administration Republican Senators are printed in Roman, Liberal Republicans in small capitals, and Democrats in italics.

Elections held this fall settle the politics of the Senatorial succession for Ohio, Maryland, and Virginia in favor of the Democrats, and California, Wisconsin and Kansas (in which a vacancy caused by the resignation of Senator Caldwell is to be filled) in favor of those opposed to the Grant Administration, while the Grant Republicans have carried only Mississippi. The election in Texas next month will unquestionably result in the choice of a Legislature which will elect a Democrat to the United States Senate. Elections to be held next year will determine the political character of the United States Senators to be chosen in the remaining States mentioned above.

Young Female Clerks.

A London paper says: "The experiment of employing young ladies as clerks in an insurance office has been tried and found eminently successful in the case of the 'Prudential,' on Ludgate Hill. For more than a year and a half the little band, beginning with ten, now reaching to thirty-six in number, and intended to be still further reinforced, has been working steadily, and giving entire satisfaction to the managers. The rooms allotted to them are light and airy, separated altogether from those occupied by the male clerks in the establishment, and furnished with convenient chairs and desks. The lady clerks, who are of various ages, from 18 to 30, seem to enjoy excellent health and spirits, and are unanimous in agreeing that regular employment, if moderate, is peculiarly salutary. They are exclusively ladies, strictly so-called, the daughters of professional men. They arrive from their various homes at Ludgate Hill at 10 A. M., stop work for an hour at 1 o'clock, and leave the office at 5 P. M. Several holidays in the year are allowed. The work is chiefly a simple kind of copying, requiring only careful attention, good handwriting, and intelligence to decipher names of persons and places—the Welsh one especially affording a limitless field for conjecture. The salary of these ladies is small, beginning (inclusive of certain fees) at £32 per annum, ank being raised £10 a year up to £60. It would appear, however, that there are abundance of candidates to be found for each chair; and, of course, as the work is as well done as by male clerks, the advantage to the company must be very great indeed. It should be added that all directions for the work pass through the hands of a lady superintendent."

General Ryan and his Family.

A dispatch from Chicago says: General W. A. C. Ryan, shot by the Spaniards at Santiego de Cuba, has a mother and one sister living in this city; also a brother, Mr. P. B. Ryan, living at Joilet, in this State. His mother's second husband is named Dunn, and he is a gardner on the north side. General Ryan was born in Toronto, Canada, in March, 1843.

There is another brother, Colonel John G. Ryan, living in Pine Bluff, Arkansas. He served in the rebel army, and was once arrested and charged with complicity in the conspiracy of John H. Surratt. The relations of the murdered General are taking measures to obtain his remains from the Spanish authorities to bring them to Chicago for interment.

☞ Senator Windom and his Committee on Transportation have postponed their journey to the South "until the holidays." When the holidays come it will be too late. Congress will be in session, or will only have adjourned for a short time. Senator Windom and his committee will hardly trouble themselves about the South at that time. The visit of the committee will be like that of the President—postponed indefinitely. It is perhaps natural. The President obviously considers himself President of but part of the country—that north of Mason and Dixon's line—and Congress legislates for it solely. Baltimore Gazette.

☞ Great reduction in our entire stock now going on. Many goods in the Dress Goods line, we are now selling at less than half their value. Fine line of ladies' Merino underwear at greatly reduced prices. Hosiery, Corsets, T[illegible], Sheetings, and everything in the stock at a great sacrifice.

The Execution of Gus Paterson for Murder.

Albany Special to The Atlanta Constitution.

ALBANY, GA., November 21, 1873.

Gus Paterson, a colored man convicted of the murder of his brother-in-law John Simmons, was hung here to-day in execution of his sentence. The murder was committed about two years ago.

About one thousand persons witnessed the execution. The prisoner was escorted to the gallows by the Albany Guards. Perfect order was preserved.

THE PRISONER.

Peterson, the prisoner, was entirely calm and self-possessed. He spoke very little. He first bade farewell to his many friends, and besought them to meet him in Heaven. He expressed himself entirely ready and willing to die.

His neck was not broken by the fall, but the physicians pronounced him dead in twenty-five minutes.

THE GREAT CUBAN BOMB.

AUGUSTA, November 21.—Hon. A. H. Stephens leaves for Washington to-morrow. He says: "I am for Cuba immediately, if not sooner." He thinks the movement to take Cuba would produce a good feeling between the North and South.

WASHINGTON, November 21.—The city is excited over the probabilities of war with Spain. Rumors of all kinds are circulated, adding to the interest of the situation. These, however, found no official confirmation beyond the news telegraphed at noon.

The Treasury Department, Navigation Division, finds no reason to believe that any irregularity exists in the Virginius papers. This fact was communicated to the Secretary of State by the Secretary of the Treasury, and received attention at the Cabinet to-day. Copies of all the papers were submitted.

The session of the Cabinet opened earlier than usual and continued until four o'clock. All the Secretaries present. The longest session during Grant's administration.

Subsequently Fish and Robeson had a conference. The whole time of the session was occupied with the Virginius matter, and the attending complications. The members are dumb regarding the details of the proposed action. The feeling which urged the attack upon the American legation was characterized as brutal and unreasonable. It really seemed that no reasonable ministry could stand at Madrid. There is increased naval activity. A naval recruiting office ordered to open at New Orleans.

MIDNIGHT NEWS.

THAT BUTCHERY.

THE ADMINISTRATION WILL WAIT FOR CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, November 21.—It is still unlikely that other than precautionary measures will be taken until Congress acts. While the President seems to be in accord with the indignant feelings of the people, he will do nothing to place the country in a false position before the world. A leading Senator who had a conversation with the President to-day, has no doubt that when Congress meets the public will be satisfied that prudence combined with a due regard to our National honor, has been observed by the Executive Department of the Government.

HAVANA, November 21.—Santiago advices of the 16th says nothing important has transpired since the 12th, except the sailing of the Virginius for Havana.

Brown's Hotel.

Undoubtedly one of the best hotels in the United States is Brown's Hotel, at Macon, Ga. Its popularity is considerably due to the just reputation of its proprietors, the Messrs. Brown, for the affability and the kindlier qualities of the true gentleman; but it is also due to its splendid table, its comfortable and well furnished apartments, and the fine management that puts every guest at his ease and makes him a sort of home feeling. Indeed, it is a luxury to stop at Brown's Hotel, Macon, Ga. Try it.

LOOK out for to-morrow's CONSTITUTION.

Scribner's for December.

This number is a magnificent specimen of Magazine enterprise. It opens with another article of the splendid series of illustrated papers entitled "The Great South, descriptive this time of Old and New Louisiana. The first illustration represents the Levee at New Orleans, as it appears on Saturday afternoons. "The Savage Man" is discussed in another illustrated article. The resumption of Specie Payment and Carlism in Spain are exhaustively considered; and between all these is woven in a choice medley of poetry and story. Dr Holland's editorial work at the end of the number is, as ever, of healthy tone, vigorous and graceful. There is no better magazine for the fireside. No spirit of rationalism or indifferentism enters into its composition. It has no subtle poison to Christian homes.

THE CONCERT FOR THE BAINBRIDGE SUFFERERS. Concordia Hall was filled last night by a large and appreciative audience. The charitable cause for which the concert was given brought out our generous people in force. All of the well known performers seemed to be inspired by the occasion and excelled themselves, and the result was that the audience, over and above the satisfaction of contributing to a good cause, received more than the value of their money in the splendid music with which they were entertained. Their approbation of the several performers was exhibited by frequent and hearty applause.

We are gratified that the Concert met with the liberal patronage that it did. The amount realized must have been considerable, and will go far in relieving the urgent distress of suffering Bainbridge.

Important Decision to Insurance Men.

Judge Hopkins made a ruling yesterday in an insurance case, which we give briefly, on account of its importance, both to insurance men and policy holders.

The case was that of Messrs. Simonton, Jones & Hatcher, vs. The London, Liverpool and Globe Insurance Company. This action was brought by the plaintiffs to recover a policy of about three thousand dollars on a stock of goods destroyed by fire.

After paying the premium and taking out the insurance the plaintiffs removed their goods into another store. They claim that before the removal, they verbally notified the agent of the company of their intention to remove, and received his verbal assent thereto. This consent, however, was not entered in writing on the policy as required by one of the rules of the company. Upon a demurrer filed by the defendants Judge Hopkins dismissed the declaration, holding that the act of removal cancelled the old and created an entirely new contract of insurance.

The case will, we are informed, be carried to the Supreme Court and an effort made to reverse this ruling. It is but just to the company to state that the allegation of the plaintiffs of having verbally notified the company's agent of their intention to remove and received his verbal consent, is disputed by them [illegible] not have contested the case.

HORRIBLE ACCIDENT.

Owen Lynch, Book-Keeper of the State Road Mangled by a Switch Engine and Dies Within an Hour.

About 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon as Mr. Owen Lynch, general book-keeper of the Western and Atlantic Railroad, was returning to his office, he was run over by an engine and so horribly mangled that he died within forty-five minutes afterwards. Mr. Lynch was walking down the track of the Macon and Western Railroad, and when near where two tracks diverge, attempted to cross from one track to the other; his attention being diverted by a switch engine going down the track of the State Road, he paid no attention to the engine of the Macon and Western Railroad, coming rapidly from his rear. The engine knocked him down, and three wheels ran over him, crushing his right leg at the knee, mangling the flesh and crushing his left leg above the knee. The engineer stopped as soon as possible. The accident occurred about fifteen or twenty feet above Broad street bridge. A litter was obtained and Mr. Lynch, attended by a large concourse of friends, carried to his residence, corner of Hunter and Butler streets. He lived only a few minutes after reaching home. When asked by his wife if he recognized her, he indicated that he did, and pointing to his children expired. He was conscious up to the time of his death. Drs. W. F. Westmoreland A. B. Calhoun attended him.

Mr. Lynch was between 57 and 58 years of age; had been book keeper of the State Road for fourteen or fifteen years. He was universally esteemed. A man of great purity and probity, of gentleness and kindness, he won the hearts of those associated with him. His loss will be felt by the State Road, and by the whole community.

His son, who is an engineer on the State Road, was telegraphed for to Chattanooga. The State Road engine going out last night was draped in mourning.

Verily a good man hath fallen.

LAYING THE CORNER-STONE.

The New Cathedral at Savannah—Imposing Ceremonies—5,000 to 6,000 Persons Out—Address of Bishop Gibbons.

The corner-stone of the new Cathedral in Savannah was laid on Wednesday with imposing ceremonies. It was a powerful Catholic demonstration.

The corner-stone was blessed by Bishop Gross. A box containing a large number of articles was placed in position and the stone lowered.

Bishop Gibbons, of Richmond, delivered a

From the address, we cull the following:

The heavens declare the glory of the Lord, and the firmament announces the work of his hands. In the beginning of the world there were no temples erected by human hands for the worship of Almighty God—the vast firmament above us was the great dome in which God was worshipped, the sun moon and stars were the lamps lighting up the sanctuary of nature. The flowers and grassy fields were the sanctuary adorning the primeval cathedral, and the birds of the air singing their morning and evening hymns to their creator, was a choir worthy of their nature's God. Nor was the temple without its preachers. The vast firmament above us proclaimed God's immensity. The thunder and lightning spoke of His vengeance upon sinners, while the rainbow spoke of the divine mercy, the sun preached to man the majesty of God. His rays penetrating the most hidden caverns of the earth, spoke of God's omnipotence. The flowers of the field proclaimed His infinite beauty; for if God so clothed the flowers of the field, how much more lovely must be its author. In the course of ages Solomon erected to Almighty God a magnificent temple. The first Christian church was built by Constantine, the Great, the first Christian Emperor of Rome who proclaimed religious toleration, and emancipated the Christians from the three centuries of tyranny which oppressed them. Under the ægis of this same religious toleration we are assembled here to-day. Your beloved Bishop and his devoted clergy are filled with delight on witnessing the imposing crowd and religious procession which has just paraded your streets and are now assembled here. I see around me various nationalities represented—practical and liberty loving sturdy Germans, the sons of Ireland, ever foremost in advancing the interests of religion and country. I see also the children of Sunny France and Italy, and I was also glad to witness in the procession the representatives of the African races fraternizing harmoniously with those who had been their former masters. What a beautiful emblem for Catholicity which numbers among her children people of every clime, nation, and tongue. Not only are Catholics gathered here, but members of other denominations, who see in the erection of this future Cathedral another ornament to their beautiful city, an honor to religion, a gate of salvation to thousands of the rising generation, and a lasting monument of the zeal of your youthful Bishop and his devoted clergy and people.

In other countries churches have been erected by crowned heads and jeweled princesses, but our reliance is on the generous hearts of the people. Here, thank God, we have no union of church and State to hamper the free action of the church; may bishops and priests ever continue to bestow their labors, their talents and their lives upon the people, and receive in return the support and gratitude of their faithful children.

THE CATHEDRAL.

The lot upon which the projected magnificent structure is located, has a frountage of 100 feet and a depth of 830 feet, and is one of the most desirable in the city. The building will be of Georgia brick, rough cast, with stone base, iron sills to windows and iron caps, cornices, pinnacles. It will have two towers finished with spires.

The style of the church will be strictly Gothic. There will be in all sixty-two windows in the building, of various sizes, and of the most elegant designs, and will be furnished with stained glass. The front of the Cathedral will be ornamented with a magnificent "rose window" eighteen feet in diameter. There will be two windows in the transept, each sixteen feet wide and twenty-eight feet high.

The Cathedral will be approached by a splendid terrace one hundred feet in length, three feet high and twenty feet wide, the terrace being five steps from the side walk and to the entrance of the church, broad stairway of nine steps.

The towers will be 215 feet in height, and strong step ladders will be provided for access to the different stories. Spiral stair-cases of iron will be placed in the turrets, which will be finished in fine style, and will be 72 feet high.

HOGS.—The market continues active at quotations. The Louisville Courier-Journal of the 29th, says:

The receipts by the stock yards for 24 hours ending at noon to-day, as reported at the Board of Trade, numbered 2,866 head, and the aggregate receipts since the beginning of the season are 29,034. The total receipts by river and rail for the same period amount to 31,728 head.

The demand was active for packing purposes, and holders contended for higher prices. Sales were made at $4 10@4 25 as on yesterday, but some lots were held out of the market.

The Bourbon Stock Yard Company report 6,500 head received to the close of business of which 963 were left in pen. The following sales by this company are reported:

Hogs	Av. weight.	Price per 100 lbs.
9000	275	$4 15
689	290	4 25
688	260	4 15
800	250	4 20
1,000	265	4 25
500	330	4 15
960	225	4 10

Our packers do not seem to take a very enthusiastic view of the prospects of the packing trade for the season now before them, and they seem reluctant to embark in slaughtering while hogs rule so firm, and prices threaten to go higher upon the slightest increase in the demand. Consequently the number of hogs slaughtered thus far has been light compared with the number of hogs slaughtered at this time last year. But by the first of next month the packers of this city will be in full swing, provided they can get hogs enough. That the stock of hogs in the United States is quite sufficient to meet all the wants of the trade there can be no doubt, but either through the operations of the Patrons of Husbandry, or because the farmers have not as a general thing, got their hogs well fattened enough to send in, receipts are meager compared with the receipts at this time last year. However, the pressure upon the farmers for money to pay their store bills, maturing paper, taxes, etc., will probably bring hogs into the market quite lively between now and Christmas. The receipts yesterday were five thousand and thirty-six head, showing an increase over the small receipts during the previous ten days. Since the first of November receipts have been only 34,553, while for the corresponding time in 1872 they were 70,175, more than double. For the corresponding period of 1871 receipts were 39,938; for 1870, 24,523; and for 1869, 22,516. The total receipts of hogs in this city since January 1, have been 575,337 head against 446,476 head received for the corresponding time of 1872. It 1873 than for any preceding year, and is probable that the packing business of the city will be carried forward with so much more vigor when it fairly sets in that fully as many hogs will be slaughtered here this year as last. At Rock Island, Keokuk, Kansas City, St. Joseph, and many other minor points, hog-killing has begun, though with nothing like the volume and energy exhibited at this season last year. The same causes that depress the market here—lack of confidence in prices and money stringency—operate similarly elsewhere; and the general showing, therefore, does not compare favorably with the exhibit last year at this time. Packers, as a rule, have no faith in hogs at over $3 50, but of course must abide by the market, whatever it may be. Yet, unless there should be some unforeseen demand for provisions comprehensive enough to take up so much of the usual surplus product as to leave an unusually light stock for home consumption, packing at over $4 50 for hogs will no be heavy in any city—certainly not in St. Louis.

SUPREME COURT OF GEORGIA, November 21, 1873.
AUGUSTA CIRCUIT.

No. 11. Hilory B. Frazer vs. Executors of Robert Campbell. Equity, from Richmond. Frank H. Miller, for plaintiff in error. Barnes & Cumming, contra.

Pending the argument of Mr. Miller, the Court adjourned until 10 o'clock A. M. to-morrow.

The case now being argued is the last on the Augusta Circuit.

Fulton Superior Court.

Court met at eight and a half o'clock Friday morning pursuant to adjournment, Hon. John I. Hopkins, Judge, presiding.

The following business was transacted:

Simonton, Jones & Hatcher vs. the London, Liverpool and Globe Insurance Company. Action in Fulton Superior Court. A demurer having been filed in the above stated case to the declaration as amended, it is, after argument had, ordered that said demurer be sustained, and that defendant recover of and from plaintiffs the costs. Jackson & Clarke attorneys for defendants.

Two defaulting jurors came up yesterday and made their excuses and had their fines remitted.

Frierson Bros. vs. James R. Evans. Attachment. Judgment by default for plaintiff for $200 20 principal $19 07 interest and costs.

Johnson vs. Mallett. Ordered by the court that this cause be dismissed for want of prosecution

Colonel N. J. Hammond was granted leave of absence for next week.

William B Trantham vs James A Redwine, principal, and William B Parker, security. Complaint Judgment by default for plaintiff for $101 principal, $23 50 interest and costs.

Ellen Ford vs Joseph M Alexander. Appeal, from Justice's Court. The plaintiff in the above stated case not appearing, it is ordered by the Court the case be dismissed at plaintiff's costs. Collier, Mynatt and Collier defendant's attorneys.

L. W. Buffington vs. The Southern Express Company, et, al. Case, &c., settled at defendant's costs. L. E. Bleckly, plaintiff's attorney.

The case of Charity A. Hendrick vs. The Western and Atlantic Railroad Company, action for damages for the killing of the plaintiff's husband, was terminated yesterday by quite a heavy verdict against the Road.

The man was killed by striking against a bridge while attending to the brakes. He was on top of the cars, and being unacquainted with the Road did not dodge in time to allow the bridge to pass over him. The jury found a verdict for the plaintiff for $3,246 as damages besides the costs of suit. Messrs. Gartrell & Stephens, and N. J. Hammond, represented the plaintiff. Julius L. Brown, and B. H. Hill & Son, contra.

The court held but a brief session on yesterday, adjourning shortly after ten o'clock. Most of the cases on the Trial Calendar, however, were disposed of, before adjournment. No session of the Superior Court will be held to-day, but Judge Hopkins will take a brief rest before tackling the Criminal Docket on Monday morning.

The Commissioner's Court

Commissioner W. B. Smith yesterday released, on bond, a United States prisoner named John R. Franklin. This man is from Union county, and was arrested and brought here on a Bench Warrant for making whisky without paying "Uncle Sam" his dues. Franklin was sent to jail where he remained until yesterday, when he succeeded in raising the required bond of $750, and was discharged.

The Justices' Courts.

A case of assault and battery was heard yesterday afternoon by Justice Munday, which threatens soon to resolve itself into a graver case of homicide. The parties are all white men. The defendant is a Mr. Daniel Jenkens, the party upon whom the offense was committed is named William Covington. It seems from the evidence that Covington was in the habit of bullying the defendant considerably, and knocking him around whenever the whim seized him.

On last Wednesday, the 19th inst., the parties met at a grocery store out on Peachtree street, kept by a man named J S Smith. Both were somewhat under the influence of liquor. Covington again began his systematic course of bullying, and kicked Jenkins around until the latter became exasperated. Covington followed him out into the street, when Jenkins suddenly picked up a good sized rock and hurled it at him with all his strength. The missil struck Covington just over the left eye and knocked him so senseless that it was an hour or two before he knew what was the matter.

Yesterday he was again unconscious, and we are informed that his attending physician, Dr. Goldsmith, considers him in a very critical condition.

The assault and battery case was on trial at a very late hour yesterday afternoon, so that we did not learn what disposition the Court made of it. Mr. Thompson represented the State; Jesse Thrasher, contra.

Station House Report.

There were four city arrests only made by the police yesterday—all for drunkenness. The negro man John, who was arrested for stealing money from the store of Howell & Co., a few weeks since, and made his escape, was again captured yesterday and will be held for trial.

The Tax Committee reported that under the present law they had no power to reduce the assessments made by the city assessors.

WORN TO A SHADOW.—Flesh, muscle and mind alike deteriorate when the stomach falters in its duty and the bowels do not perform their part as scavengers of the system regularly and naturally. In chronic dyspepsia the body is usually emaciated, and the muscular fibre loose and flabby, and the brain incapable of prolonged or vigorous exertion. Every organ, every member, even the immortal mind itself, is to a certain extent dependent upon the stomach for support. Strengthen and regulate this feeder of the system with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, when it fails to perform its functions properly. A good appetite, an increased flow of the gastric juice, and perfect digestion and assimilation will assuredly be the result. The manner in which the great tonic and alterative effects a cure of dyspepsia is direct and simple. It stimulates the digestive organs, cleanses without convulsing the bowels, regulates the flow of bile and determines it into the right channels, and exercises a tranquilizing influence over the nerves.

DR. CALHOUN'S LIVER PILLS
ATLANTA, GA.

Dr. Calhoun's Liver Pills.

I AM engaged in the Manufacture of the Celebrated Family Medicine, known as the Calhoun Liver and Anti-Bilious Pills, under the supervision and assistance of Dr. Calhoun himself. This Pill has been in use for the last thirty-five years, and has taken precedence over all other Family Preparations, by all that have used them. Thousands would certify to their great value if necessary. One fact should supersede any amount of certificates, and that fact is this: Dr. Calhoun has been physician to the Fulton County Prison for over seven years, when the number of prisoners ranged from 20 to 70, laboring under all the diseases incident to this climate. With but few exceptions, they have all been treated with this Pill, and astonishing to say, during that long period not a solitary death occurred under his treatment. This fact is worth any amount of testimonials.

I am now prepared to fill orders from Druggists, Merchants and others. All orders sent me shall receive prompt attention. There is no type of FEVER, DYSPEPSIA, DIARRHOEA, DYSENTERY, RHEUMATISM, CHOLERA MORBUS, BILLIOUSNESS and SICK HEADACHE, or other diseases of a Southern climate, but yields readily to this preparation.

ATLANTA CONSTITUTION

FOR 1873.

A DEMOCRATIC NEWSPAPER,

DAILY AND WEEKLY.

THE FAVORITE OF ALL CLASSES

Lawyers, Merchants, Farmers, Etc.

TWELVE REASONS FOR SUBSCRIBING

1. THE CONSTITUTION is published at the Capital of the State, and contains Proceedings of the Legislature in full, together with constant and accurate information of the actings of all the Departments of the State Government.

2. It has the sole and exclusive right of publishing the DECISIONS OF THE SUPREME COURT from the Reporter of the Court. These Decisions are delivered on Monday of every week and are immediately published in THE CONSTITUTION. Hence every lawyer in Georgia should take the paper, and the great proportion are subscribers.

3. THE CONSTITUTION is the Official Journal of the State, of the city of Atlanta and a large number of counties.

4. THE CONSTITUTION publishes a weekly Cotton Editorial, embracing remarks on the Gold Premium and all matters affecting the cotton trade, with statistics difficult to be obtained elsewhere. Producers and dealers in cotton, not alone in Georgia, but all over the country, procure THE CONSTITUTION for these articles.

5. THE CONSTITUTION furnishes Telegraphic Dispatches and news from all quarters of the globe, including markets, domestic and foreign. Hence the paper is popular with merchants everywhere.

6. Besides our Daily Associated Press Dispatches, THE CONSTITUTION has specials from Washington, the National Capital.

7. Its Correspondence Department is unsurpassed in the South, having special correspondents at Washington, New York, and in various parts of the country.

8. THE CONSTITUTION publishes a monthly Fashion Letter from New York, written by the most celebrated female Fashion writer in the United States. The ladies, therefore, all want THE CONSTITUTION.

9. A new feature for this year will be Weekly European Correspondence, by which the readers of THE CONSTITUTION will be taken on a tour through Europe.

10. The ablest writers and statesmen of Georgia select THE CONSTITUTION to give their views to the public, and so do the PEOPLE, and hence it is the admitted leading Democratic Journal of the State.

11. The two great SPECIALTIES, our SUPREME COURT DECISIONS for the lawyers, and our COTTON articles for the merchants and farmers, make THE CONSTITUTION unrivalled in this part of the South.

12. For the reasons given above, THE CONSTITUTION is the paper for all classes, lawyers, merchants, farmers, mechanics and others, circulates in every county of Georgia, has the largest State circulation and is, therefore, the favorite medium for ADVERTISERS.

Every Georgian should, after taking his own local paper, subscribe for THE CONSTITUTION, published at the Capital of his State; and we would here return thanks to the people for a patronage, that has culminated in the grandest newspaper success known in the Southern States. THE CONSTITUTION, not yet five years old, has attained a circulation never reached by a Daily paper in Georgia, and has erected a magnificent five-story building of its own, as complete as any in the United States, giving employment to seventy or eighty persons daily, and running a half dozen presses by steam. Visitors to Atlanta are cordially invited to call and examine THE CONSTITUTION building and its powerful presses, printing four or five thousand papers per hour.

THE DAILY CONSTITUTION

CAPRICE.

BY W. D. HOWELLS.

I.

She hung the cage at the window;
"If he goes by," she said,
"He will hear my robin singing,
And when he lifts his head,
I shall be sitting here to sew,
And he will bow to me, I know."

The robin sang a love-sweet song,
The young man raised his head;
The maiden turned away and blushed;
"I am a fool!" she said,
And went on broidering in silk
A pink-eyed rabbit, white as milk.

II.

The young man loitered slowly
By the house three times that day;
She took her bird from the window;
"He need not look this way."
She sate at her piano long,
And sighed and played a death-sad song.

But when the day was done, said she,
"I wish that he would come!
Remember, Mary, if he calls
To-night—I'm not at home."
So when he rang, she went—the elf—
She went and let him in herself.

III.

They sang full long together,
Their songs love-sweet, death-sad;
The robin woke from his slumber,
And rang out, clear and glad.
"Now go!" she coldly said; "'tis late;"
And followed him—to latch the gate.

He took the rosebud from her hair,
While, "You shall not!" she said,
He closed her hand within his own,
And while her tongue forbade,
Her will was darkened in th' eclipse
Of binding love upon his lips.

DR. TUTT'S VEGETABLE LIVER PILLS.

THE ONLY KNOWN MEDICINE,

THAT AT THE SAME TIME

PURGES, PURIFIES AND STRENGTHENS THE SYSTEM.

Dr. Tutt's Pills are composed of many ingredients. Prominent among them are Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry, so united as to act together; the one, through its admixture with other substances, purifying and purging; while the other is strengthening the system. Thus these Pills are at the same time a tonic and a cathartic, a desideratum long sought for by medical men, but never before discovered. In other words, they do the work of two medicines and do it much better than any two we know of, for they remove nothing from the system but impurities, so that while they purge they also strengthen and hence they cause no debility and are followed by no reaction.

Dr. Tutt's Pills have a wonderful influence on the blood. They not only purify without weakening it, but they remove all noxious particles from the chyle before it is converted into fluid, and thus makes impure blood an utter impossibility. As there is no debilitation, so there is no nausea or sickness attending the operation of this most excellent medicine, which never strains or tortures the digestive organs, but causes them to work in a perfectly natural manner; hence persons taking them do not become pale and emaciated, but on the contrary, while all impurities are being removed, the combined action of the Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry purifies and invigorates the body, and a robust state of health is the result of their united action. Price 25 cents a box. Sold by all druggists. Depot 43 Courtland street, New York. nov21-deod4w&w4t
